About RanFy Inc.

RanFy Inc. builds simple apps for students, creators and small businesses. All apps run in a web browser. Five are live and one is in development. This guide describes each product in turn.

1. Fresh Texfy

What it is: A design tool and an alternative to Canva. You drag and drop to make posters, social media posts and thumbnails.

Who it is for: Students and creators.

Key features: Drag-and-drop design for posters, social media posts and thumbnails.

Launch date: 10 June 2025.

Version: 2.3.

Plans: The Free plan includes 20 templates, and exports carry a small RanFy watermark. The Pro plan costs 4.99 USD per month and includes unlimited templates and no watermark.

2. Font Fruite

What it is: An app for making your own font. You upload an image of each handwritten letter and the app builds a font file.

Who it is for: Hobbyists and designers.

Key features: Turns images of handwritten letters into a font file.

Launch date: 22 August 2025, under the name GlyphSnap. The product was renamed Font Fruite on 15 January 2026.

Version: 1.4.

Plans: The Free plan allows 5 font exports per month and TTF format only. The Pro plan costs 3.99 USD per month and includes unlimited exports in both TTF and OTF formats.

3. PidiFie

What it is: A PDF reader and editor, and an alternative to Adobe Acrobat Reader.

Who it is for: Anyone who wants to read and mark up PDF files.

Key features: Read PDFs, highlight text and add notes.

Launch date: 5 November 2025.

Version: 1.0.

Plans: PidiFie is free for everyone. There is no paid plan.

Known issue: Text selection is not fully reliable yet.

4. RoaFy

What it is: A social platform for roadmaps. Users upload a learning roadmap, and others follow it step by step and tick off their progress.

Who it is for: Learners.

Key features: Uploading learning roadmaps, following a roadmap step by step, and ticking off progress.

Launch date: 18 January 2026.

Version: 0.9 (beta).

Plans: RoaFy is free.

5. ExpendFy Persona

What it is: The easiest expense tracker for personal money.

Who it is for: Individuals. Each account is for one user only.

Key features: Add income and expenses, see them on a calendar, see a monthly summary, and export your data to CSV. ExpendFy Persona does not show profit.

Launch date: 2 December 2025.

Version: 2.0.

Plans: The Free plan allows up to 100 entries per month. The Premium plan costs 2.99 USD per month and allows unlimited entries.

6. ExpendFy Business
